Several recent occurrences on the White's Creek Pike, a few miles distant from the city, give rise to the apprehension that that road is infested by a gang of thieves who would not hesitate to take life for the gain it might afford, but for the danger of forfeiting their own existence in such attempts. A gentleman who resides on that pike, while last Monday night returning from the city to his home, received an admonition from a fence corner to halt, but not having his pocket artillery along, wisely concluded not to stop at that place. The command accelerated rather than jessened his speed, and he was soon beyond reach of the miscreant of stock yesterday and day before still continued, though comparatively light.

Meeting of the Mechanic and Manufac-turers Association Last Night. The Mechanic and Manufacturers Asso-ciation met last night in the rear of the old State Bank and Col. Walker was called to the chair. Speeches were made by various gentlemen, among them Mr. John J. Mc-Cann, going to show that the object of the Association partook in no manner of poli-tics, but was in the interest of the Mechanics and Manufacturers, and to overthrow and abolish the present system of convict labor which is in direct conflict with the interest and in competition with the labor of the honest mechanic and manufacturer. courthouse had been for the purpose of expressing indignation at the course pured by the State in allowing convict labor te compete with the mechanic, but the im-pression had gone forth that it was a new departure inaugurated either by the mechanics and manufacturers or by sap-headed politicians, and that it was desirable that such impression be corrected, and it was hoped the members of the press present would see that the error was rectified. Mr. T. M. Brennan also made a few remarks, in the course of which he stated that the mass-meeting recently held at the Courthouse was intended for the benefit of the mechanics and manufacturers, but that two or three gentlemen had usurped the pared to hear politics new. The speech of ne of the gentlemen was a very interesting lecture upon the Sewanee Goal Mines, but was not, though intended to be, in the interest of the meeting. The gentlemen, it might appear, were about to turn the Mechanics and Manufacturers' Association into a society for encouraging the Sewanec Coal Mines-that was the whole of their speeches at the Court House. Nashville Opera House.

This is the name given by Mr. Grey the ssee of the old Theatre, and as such we introduce it to the public. The doors of the Nashville Opera House were thrown open to the public last night and although not crowded, the building was very comfortably filled, a large part of the audience being composed of ladies. Previous to the raising of the curtain, Mr. Grey made his ap-pearance before the footlights, and delivered very appropriate little speech or inaugural which was happily received.

The old building which has so handsomely improved, presented a minding us of the first opening of the Adelphi under the management of honest John Greene. Aside from the attractive walls, beautifully frescoed ceiling and the gilded ornaments around the circle, there is a degree of comfort in the nicely cuishioned seats which will be appreciated by all visitors. The promenade has been covered with heavy matting, and that constant tramp which is more or less indulged in at all thea. tres, will not be hereafter so obnoxious. In short, the house has been thoroughly overhauled, and the improvements are in good taste, and best of all have been paid for. The programme for last night opened with the fine old comedy of the "Serious Family," with Geo. A. Bailey as Charles Torreus; L. J. Martin as Aminadab Sleek; Geo. S. Grey as Capt. Murphy McGuire; A., J. Davidson as Frank Vincent; Mr. Adams as Danvers; Miss Bettie Grey as Mrs. Ormsby Delmaine, Miss Florence Kent as Mrs. Charles Torrens, Maud Davison as Lady Sourly Cream-ly, and Miss Jose Martin as Emma Torrens. ## MYSTERIOUS EXCAVATIONS.

Extraordinary Dirt Digging by Some Unknown Agency. For the past few years, in fact at interals ever since the close of the war, residents of the locality shortly distant from the western terminus of the city, have been much astonished, somewhat annoyed, and in some instances considerably alarmed by the fact that big holes are frequently found in the grounds adjacent to their houses, made or dug there in the night time by some mysterious or undiscovered agency. These strange excava-tions are in form and appearance something like those made by gophers in sandy countries or the diggings of persons in search of buried treasurers, and the work is evidently done in the night time. There are various conjectures as to why and by whom these excavations are made, but as yet no very satisfactory explanation of the matter has transpired. If there are any gophers in this latitude, the fact of their existence is not within the knowledge of the people, and it is almost positively known that Capt. Kidd was not in the habit of voyaging to this particular part of the country, or ever made even a single trip in this direction for the purpose of hiding in the earth the glittering treasures that were his. tion therefor,..... 147 30 A more reasonable explanation of this till now seemingly mysterious affair may be $35,516 65 found in the fact that a number of ignorant and superstitious persons are afflicted with the impression that vast amounts of money were during the war buried in that particular locality in order to be saved from still worse fate.
